A very pleasant New Year's dinner was served yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Langton to about twenty of their friends. The table was very prettily decorated with violets and malle and the eatables were most attractively served by the hostess. Before the dinner Mr. Langton supervised a display of daylight fireworks which were rather distressing to the nerves of some of the ladies present. All went home after one of the pleasantest and jolliest dinners which could be imagined.

Five Points

That's right, five—there are others, but these are the important ones for you and your eyes:

WHEN

—you frown or squint in looking at an object;

—your eyes show an intolerance of light;

—they tire, ache, smart or water;

—objects swim or become dim;

—you have frequent headaches;

These are a few of the points that point to the need of glasses, points that point to us.

HAWAIIAN RELIEF

SOCIETY HAS

5TH ANNIVERSARY

The Arion Hall, which was beautifully adorned with evergreens, was the center of attraction on New Year's eve, when the members of the Hawaiian Relief Association, dressed in white uniforms with gold braided ribbons and badges, gathered to celebrate their annual meeting. President S. C. Dwight officiated, assisted by the following officers of the Association: Joseph J. Fern, vice president; Frank R. Harvey, treasurer; A. S. Kalepou, financial secretary; B. N. Kahalepuna, recording secretary; A. S. C. Pihana, auditor; S. B. Kanehale, chaplain, and D. L. Kahaloanui, sergeant-at-arms. The Association is now five years old and a charter was recently granted by the Treasurer of the Territory. It has a branch on the island of Hawaii with an office at Hilo. Its membership is now about 500 and an increase is assured. The program was principally made up of speeches and a large number of new applicants were duly received by the Association. Frank K. Archer, the Supervisor, was one of them and an address which he consented to deliver brought the members to a closer union of brotherhood. Eben Low, a member of Hawaii branch, also addressed the audience and was loudly applauded. During his speech, he suggested that the Association should have a building of its own and that he, as one, was perfectly willing to contribute toward that purpose. John Manuia, president of the Hilo branch, also addressed the audience and dwelt upon the necessity of recognizing each other more attentively, especially when seen with Association badges. His remarks were very instructive. J. H. S. Kaleo, W. K. Poal and President S. C. Dwight closed the speechmaking and a general reception followed. The hall was filled to its utmost and a large number of ladies were present.

STORM DAMAGE TO THE CITY ROADS

Several Bad Washouts In Various Places About Town

Road Supervisor Sam Johnson states that considerable damage has been done by the storm to the roads. Most of it is small, but will require considerable work to repair.

The most serious damage to the roads so far reported is a bad washout on the Manoa road and another on the Pukaki hill road. The damage to the latter will necessitate the installing of a new drain.

The Makiki flume has given out in a new place and there is a bad cut in the Diamond Head road to Kahala. Liliha street has several holes washed in it, and there is more or less minor damage to various other streets, many of them having holes in them caused by the heavy run of water.

The O. R. & L. Co. officials report that the storm did no damage whatever to their track, even the Wahiawa branch line being uninjured. Last Monday afternoon an engine and some flat cars ran off the track at Honea, owing to a defective wheel, but the weather had nothing to do with this.

County Engineer Gehr states that so far no reports of damage to roads and bridges in the country districts have reached him.

The occasion was the election of officers for the society. For some time there has been a bitter feud between the two factions, one known as the Merchants and the other as the Bow-wows. Numerous assaults have taken place and charges and counter charges have been brought by various members of the two opposing factions in this "united" society. Several cases have been tried in the courts, and these have occasioned several arrests for perjury. On one or two occasions defendants in assault cases, after being found not guilty, have turned around and had the witnesses who testified against them arrested for perjury.

In the contest last night it is stated by some of the Chinese that a number of the members of the society came prepared with all sorts of weapons to control the election. For a while there was a stormy time and it looked as if there would be bloodshed, but the efforts of the more peacefully inclined finally prevailed to prevent any tragedy.

The Merchants' faction won out in the election, the following officers being chosen:

President, Chu Gen; vice president, Ho Fon; English secretary, Chang Kim; Chinese secretary, Chong Chock Lai; treasurer, Lau Tong; assistant treasurer, Do Wai Sang.

KUHIO TO START

IN VENTURA

FOR WASHINGTON

"I intend to leave for Washington in the Ventura, whenever she may come here," said Delegate Kalaniana'ole this noon. "That will bring me there about the end of the present holiday recess."

"I had expected to leave in the Alameda, but my physician forbade my going. I was laid up in bed for some time, and am just now out. I had a very bad cold with fever and other complications. I would have liked to have started earlier, but it was impossible for me to do so."

The Ventura is due to arrive today, but had at noon not yet been sighted. She will probably sail for San Francisco tomorrow.

DECIDES THAT HOLT

ecutor. By a codicil $500 was left to the Queen's Hospital.

The suit in equity was for the purpose of constraining certain provisions of the will, various questions having arisen as to the rights and duties of the petitioner, Carlos Long, as administrator de bonis non with the will annexed, and as to the rights and interests of the devisees and heirs at law. There were ten questions upon which a construction was prayed for, but Judge Robinson held that only three of them should be considered. These were whether or not the will conferred upon the sons an estate in fee simple absolute of one-quarter of the estate; second, if it did not so confer the estate, what then is the character and extent of the estate conferred upon them respectively; third, does the will create in the executor thereof and his successors, including the petitioner, in his official capacity, an active trust, to hold, control, manage, invest and reinvest the estate during the lives of the sons or of the two of them remaining alive.

The first question the Judge answers in the negative. It is the opinion of the Court that the will gives to each of the three sons, or their heirs, a one-third interest in the income of an undivided three-fourths of the estate, after deducting the proportion of the bequest to the wife of the testator and to the Queen's Hospital.

The said income from the undivided three-fourths of the estate was to be collected in trust by William A. Aldrich, in propria persona and, not by virtue of his office, and by him, as such trustee, paid over to the respective legatees. It is the opinion of the Court that no power is given to the trustee to sell or otherwise dispose of any property subject to said trusts, or to make any change or modification in any existing investment. His powers are limited to the conservation and preservation of the trust estate. Upon the termination of the interests so given and the conclusion of the trusts created, by the deaths of the several legatees, the fee simple of the undivided quarter interests shall vest in the heirs of the respective legatees.

The bill was originally brought by Long for the purpose of finding out whether he could sell certain Waialua property belonging to the estate, for which J. R. Galt had made a handsome offer.

STORMY TIME AT UNITED CHINESE

SOCIETY ELECTION

That knives and revolvers were not used to settle the question of supremacy between the Bow-wows and the Merchants in the election of officers for the Chinese United Society was due to the strenuous efforts and smooth tongues of the chairman and others, it reports emanating from the lodge rooms of that Chinese society are to be credited.

The occasion was the election of officers for the society. For some time there has been a bitter feud between the two factions, one known as the Merchants and the other as the Bow-wows. Numerous assaults have taken place and charges and counter charges have been brought by various members of the two opposing factions in this "united" society. Several cases have been tried in the courts, and these have occasioned several arrests for perjury. On one or two occasions defendants in assault cases, after being found not guilty, have turned around and had the witnesses who testified against them arrested for perjury.

DEVAUCHELLE DISCHARGED

The case of Eugene Devauchelle, well known politically, came up in the Police Court this morning. He was charged with profanity. The stories told by the arresting officer, Barenson, and the witnesses for the defence varied to such a degree that Devauchelle was discharged. He had not left the police station before he was arrested again on a new charge of profanity preferred by Nigel Jackson.

In the arrest made Monday night Devauchelle was badly battered by the officer, who has the reputation of being the strongest man on the force, and said that he was jumped by the Devauchelle gang. On the other hand, it was claimed that the officer struck Devauchelle without any cause what ever.

APPOINTMENT

"Larsen will not hold his position as captain of the harbor police. Who will get it is not absolutely certain as yet but it will very probably be L. B. Reeves, who is now a conductor on the Rapid Transit. Harry Murray will go but I cannot tell who will get his position."

"In regard to the Road Supervisor's job there is going to be a pretty fight. Archer and Keioha seem to have split away from us and, with Charlie Hueston, stand for Sam Johnson. On the other hand Andrew Cox, Sam Dwight, Frank Harvey and Joe Fern are all against Johnson and the choice lies between three men, John Wilson, John Markham and Paul Jarrett. Of these three I think that Markham has the best chance, though it is very close and I believe that anyone of the three would be selected to beat Johnson."

"Don't it seem to you that Mr. Kinney considered that the Advertiser should have some reward for giving its services to the Democratic party in the recent fight, and that for that reason Taylor was offered the position?"

"Yes, the Advertiser certainly was our political organ in the fight and I guess that is the way we all looked at it until the other matters were called to our attention."
